

Earthquake Preparedness

Reducing non-structural vulnerability

Look around for things that are not securely fixed to the building walls or floor.

Think about what might happen during severe shaking.
What could fall on or slide on to people?

What could topple and smash?

What could crash in to people?

Relocate/move heavy, tall and narrow furniture and equipment

Secure non-structural building elements

Non-structural Preventive Measures

